SCHOOLS IN NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA,

FOR THE

Orphans of Confederate Soldiers.

REFERENCES:

"COLUMBIA, Oct. 19, 1866.

MISS M. A. BUIE, SO FAVORABLY KNOWN during the war as the "Soldier's Friend," is engaged in the attempt to found a School for the orphan children of Southern Soldiers. She proposes that contributions for this purpose should be placed in the hands of some gentlemen of this State, to be appointed by the Governor, and that the School shall be located in some desirable portion of the South. I commend this laudable undertaking to all charitable persons, and I wish that the amplest success may reward the patriotic efforts of Miss Buie.

WADE HAMPTON."

"I concur with Gen. Hampton in commending the benevolent enterprise of Miss Buie to the favor and patronage of the generous, liberal and philanthropic. Her life thus far has been devoted to acts of kindness and charity, and she merits success in her undertaking.

J. L. ORR, Governor."

He is a gentleman of high character, great moral worth, and enjoys the confidence of the public

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

J. L. ORR."

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.

FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.

SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,

BY WHICH

Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Rothchilds' would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhœa, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, that you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used fail, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs. ——, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhœa for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding they were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Remedy after remedy was tried. Every means recommended by our most modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry,) as the last resort, to recommend to her its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhœa, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hope of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, in detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

It is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war precludes the idea of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.,) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $10,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvements and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERED Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern states, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Wednesday Evening, Feb. 20, 1867.

Credit of the State.

But two measures have been introduced into the Legislature looking directly to the maintenance of the credit of the State, by meeting the interest due on its bonds. Mr. Berry, of Orange, introduced a bill in the Senate looking to the effectuation of this object, by the issue of Treasury Notes. After full discussion, in the Senate, it was laid on the table. Whatever may be thought of the provisions of Mr. Berry's bill, he is entitled to the gratitude of the true friends of the State, for his indefatigable efforts in two sessions of the General Assembly, to promote and sustain the credit of the State.

Col. Cowan, the able member of the House from New Hanover, has brought forward the second measure to appreciate the State credit and to provide for the payment of interest due. It is a subject on which he has reflected much, and his report and bill from the committee which he has presented, strike out directly the only scheme which can undoubtedly effect the object. It is nothing more nor less than to meet by taxation the State's interest. The bill provides for the payment of the interest on the entire unrepudiated debt; the interest due prior to the 1st day of January, 1868, to be paid or funded in bonds of the State at their par value, and then to be regularly met when due by taxation. He contends that this can be done, by simply doubling the amount of tax already assessed by the Revenue bill of the Public Treasurer for the present year, and trebling it hereafter.

We regard the tax proposed by the Revenue bill as intrinsically lighter and fairer as a general rule, than heretofore. Property is taxed for 1867 at ad valorem at only one-fifth of one per cent. or $2 on every $1000. For 1868 at three-tenths of one per cent. or $3 on the $1000. To meet the State's interest, in addition to the ordinary expenses of the government, it is contended that this tax will have to be increased in a ratio which can be easily borne by the tax payers.

The maintenance of the public credit, is so essential to the preservation of private credit and the progress and recuperation of the State and people, it appears to us, no citizen who feels any concern in such matters, can hesitate to give his entire endorsement to any scheme to effect it, which lies at all within the means and ability of the people. The equitable division of the tax among all classes, is all that is needed to bring it within the means of the people.—The improvement of the public credit, will most assuredly work profitably to all classes, and when once we return again to the spirit of paying, the energy and enterprise which it will excite, will afford amply the means to pay. If, for instance, the improvement of the State credit can be effected by the payment of a small tax, so as to give a market and demand for our Internal Improvement bonds, at once the circulation of currency in the State will be doubled, and every one knows the effect of a supply of circulation upon the feelings and energies of the people. The bill will be up for discussion in the House to-night, and we trust such undeniable facts will be elicited, as will satisfy the Legislature of our ability to pay, and the necessity for arranging to do it at once.

Night Sessions.

With all due deference to the judgment of the General Assembly, we must suggest, that the policy which insists upon night sessions of the Legislature, is in our judgment, not well considered. The people evidently prefer that what is done should be well done, rather than that much should be attempted and little well done. Legislators should not be hurried—cool and clear heads are essential to safe and wise legislation. Hence, one session a day from 9 o'clock, A. M. to 2 P. M. would be far better than two sessions, and then there would be as little time left for committee work, reflection, recreation and rest, as would be safe or desirable. We regard the most important work of legislators to be committee-work. It is doubtful if any bill should be passed before investigated by a committee. This plan would not only secure well considered legislation, but would clearly save time and dispatch business far more than having two sessions per day. If an important bill is under consideration which cannot be completed before 2 o'clock, an evening session to complete the action on that bill might answer, but beyond that, we believe night sessions inadmissible. Let no one say, that we are anxious for the Legislature to continue here.—Far from it. We know it is anxious to get away, and we desire to facilitate its movements. If it were ready to adjourn to-day, it would suit us precisely.

WAKE COUNTY COURT.—We are indebted to our County Court Clerk for the following particulars in reference to the County Court elections as follows.

Chairman.—Wm. H. High.

Special Court.—W. H. Hood, R. W. Wynn, Reuben Fleming, and H. A. Hodge.

Finance Committee.—Geo. W. Norwood, M. B. Royster, N. J. Whitaker.

County Trustee.—N. S. Harp.

Superintendent of Work House.—Wyatt J. Holleman.

We have not been advised of any other business of the Court, but we are quite sure the energetic Solicitor, R. C. Badger, Esq., has cut out no little work for the Grand Jury and the Court.

We learn from the Norfolk Day Book that the steamship Delaware arrived at that port yesterday morning, and immediately commence receiving her cargo for Liverpool.

The Delaware has a capacity of over two thousand tons, and is the largest and handsomest ship of this line that has yet arrived at Norfolk. It is a gratifying fact, says the Day Book, that there is more cotton and naval stores on her wharf than she will be able to take away.

The steamship Pioneer was cleared at Charleston, S. C., on Monday, for Liverpool, having on board 493 bales of Sea Island and 1,123 bales of Upland cotton and eleven packages of merchandise, the cargo being valued at $269,243.

STRONG LANGUAGE.—While reviewing the Louisiana bill on Saturday night, Mr. DOOLITTLE said its title should be amended so as to read, not to restore civil government, but to organize hell in the State of Louisiana. [Applause in the galleries, mingled with hisses.]

Spirit of the Conservative Press.

From the National Intelligencer.

We confess to relief from a heavy weight of depression by the action of the Senate yesterday upon reconstruction. Not that we are in favor of its bill in the abstract, or to its provisions in detail; yet as an alternative to the bloody demonstrations in the legislation of the House, it goes to the latter as an admonition.

In the respect that it forever consigns, as we suppose, to utter darkness the hideous House bill to establish negro supremacy over whites in Louisiana, which would infallibly instigate the imitation of St. Domingo horrors, lighting up the lurid flames of wholesale butchery, burning, rapacity, and all other forms of crime, we are thankful for the action of the Senate. Nothing less than this can be said, in view of the horror that seized upon all good men, of tolerable intelligence, reason and humanity, upon the announcement of the passage, by an almost unanimous party vote, of a measure that so thoroughly and shamelessly illustrated the abjectness of servility to the behests of rancorous dictators of party, and chilled the very currents of heart and soul by its brutal requirements.

We will not yet despair, will not yet cease to hope for legislative action that may lead to an adjustment which will bring that reconciliation and restoration of fraternal and political relations that might set the ship of state once more on the voyage of an assured prosperity. In this view we hailed with pleasure the North Carolina plan of Southern Statesmen. So also we spoke of Gen. Banks' speech as one that looked to the adoption of some ameliorating measure towards the South.

The Senate bill is now before the House, and there is yet opportunity to improve upon it. To this end, time should be had for the response of the country through the press, and for calm consideration by every legislator, under the obligation of his solemn oath, and his unquestionable responsibility, in respect to the dire necessity at this time for acts and duties in the direction of an excited spirit of self-sacrificing patriotism. Whether the national legislature acts in this way or not, we invoke upon the part of the South a continuance of disposition to await the consummation of events here, and until then to camly consider them in consistence with their generally expressed view, to bear with fortitude the inflictions that may be imposed, and to determine in the end in accordance with a full sense of what, all things considered, comports will honor, principle, and policy.

We see no other course for them to pursue in view of the doubt and uncertainty of a correction of the current wrongs by the people of the North. The Republican party is so much in the leading strings of politicians that the untiring counsel of reason, the dictates of humanity, the continued depression of business, the oppressiveness of on unequal and grinding taxation, the halt in financial movements, and even a general condition of bankruptcy itself, may be used as pretexts, in connection with a thousand and one other things known to the chicane of politicians, to still more inflame a misleaded people to aggravate the measure of woes of the Southern people. Confiscation, and Heaven only knows what more, may be in the womb of the future! Perhaps the sanguinary instructions of Messrs. Forney, Butler and Colfax may take practical shape in the proposed three armies to march through the South to burn, kill, and possess the land. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. But in our view no effort should be pretermitted, no time lost, no sacrifice be cared for on the part of statesmen to retrieve the utterly destructive tendency of public affairs.

The Senate action is certainly a step in the direction of right from the condition of thick darkness that for a time shrouded the land by the extraordinary and execrable action of the House in the case of the State of Louisiana.

We are to judge of the action of the Senate only by the words of the bill passed. There were no speeches from the Republican side to show anything as to the spirit that actuated their acceptance of the Sherman bill. It differs for the better from the House measures of infamy in that it gives the power of appointment of generals to control in the South to the President. No sentence of death nor imprisonment can be executed without his approval. In requiring universal suffrage for negroes, it does not withhold it from white men.

Why may not Congress yet adopt the North Carolina plan of impartial suffrage for the South, which would allow negroes to vote upon a property qualification or that of reading and writing? Why may it not modify its measures so as to abrogate that portion of the constitutional amendment which proscribes the best citizens in the South from the power to hold office?

From the New York World.

The Sherman Disunion Scheme.

The Sherman substitute for Stevens's "declaration of war" against the South, passed the Senate yesterday morning. This new scheme really contains nothing novel, but differs from the House bill in several important particulars:

(1) In giving the power to appoint military satraps to the President, instead of to General Grant. (2) In including the so-called Blaine amendment, that is, the Reconstruction Committee's constitutional amendment, as a part of the scheme. (3) In allowing the issuance of a habeas corpus writ; and (4) in providing a machinery of reconstruction which will make it impossible for the Southern States to get back into the Union before the next Presidential election.

This last consideration is the real animus of all these bills. Both House and Senate are agreed to undo all that has been done for the last two years, in the way of restoration, and to provide a machinery which will keep the Southern States unrepresented either in Congress or the Electoral College for two years longer. The following is the new reconstruction scheme, as passed in the Senate:

SECTION 5. That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution and government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State twenty-one years old and upward, of whatever race, color, or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates, and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates, and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for approval and Congress shall have approved the same, and when said State by a vote of its Legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress and known as article 14, and when said article shall have become part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom on their taking the oath prescribed by law, and then and therefore the preceding sections of this act shall be in operation in said State."

There are contingencies enough in the above to keep the Southern States out of the Union until doomsday, which, of course, is what Stevens & Co., have in view. We presume this new device of the devil will be rushed through the House to-day. If delayed until Wednesday, the President can kill the measure so far as this Congress is concerned. If it is within the resources of parliamentary stratagem, we hope the Conservatives in the House will fight this bill of abominations to the bitter end. Let it die the death.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Will you allow me a small space in your paper in which to notice an allusion personal to myself, contained in the following paragraphs of the Standard:

"What has become of Mr. Crawford's "ball" to which he wanted to consign W. W. Holden and his friends on account of their devotal Unionism?

Mr. Crawford will soon be a member of a "pretended" State Legislature, and he may thank his stars, if he is ever permitted again to exercise the privilege of voting."—Standard.

The author of the above is so accustomed to falsehood and is such a stranger to truth, that I doubt whether his equal in the art of lying can be found in America, Europe, Asia, or Africa. No one can so compact falsehood and put so much of it in so small a compass as he can. He knows how to tell the lie direct and the lie by implication, all in one sentence—almost in one word. Above, for instance, he utters two falsehoods in one paragraph. First, that I wanted to build a hell for him "on account of his devoted Unionism."

This is LIE No. 1 against me. I never denounced him on account of his "Unionism."—I denounced him on account of his treason to the Union and then his treason to his Confederate allies. I never denounced any man in North Carolina who maintained consistently his honest opinions. Mr. Holden admits that he committed treason against the Union, but he calls his treason "technical." "Technical!" Why, when he advised me and the balance of the Democracy in 1856, to dissolve the Union by secession, if Mr. Fremont was elected, was he in earnest? When he signed the ordinance of secession in May, 1861, was that just a little "technical" lying, in which his heart did not go with his mouth and his pen? When he pledged "the last dollar and the last man" and "his sacred honor," oh! most inestimable pledge! was it a little "technical" bravado to fool the Rebs—make them believe he was in earnest, that he might betray them? When he denounced Andy Johnson and Wm. G. Brownlow as "East Tennessee traitors" and Edward Everitt as "one of the most elegant devils out of hell." (There is where I got that ugly little word, Mr. Holden, and I beg pardon of all decent people for having used it.) When he denounced Abraham Lincoln as a "despot" and the Northern people as our "vandal foe," was that all just a little "technical" treason. When he urged us so eloquently in his paper to meet this "vandal foe," just in order that he might commit a little "technical" treason? (You know he says that he could take the oath but for a "technicality.") Was it for the further purpose of seducing honest, simple people into real treason, that he might afterward get them punished? It was for all this, Mr. Holden, and a thousand fold more, like it, that I denounced you, and not "on account of your Unionism;" and when you say to the contrary I simply say "FALSE." I have submitted with the fidelity of a soldier to the laws and Constitution of the Union, and when men like you, who have betrayed every cause you ever advocated, denounce me and men like me, as "traitors," I shall repeat "false!"

But lie No. 2 is in favor of W. W. Holden, and by "implication," conveys the idea that he was, and is a Union man. What he is, no one can safely say. He is all things by turns, and nothing long. But what he was, let me tell a moment: He was an original fire-eating Secessionist, and a professed admirer of Mr. Calhoun. When I grew up I was a young Democrat and a disciple of this same W. W. Holden. I read his paper, the Standard. I was educated by Holden, as was all the young Democracy of the State, in the faith and doctrine of "State Rights and Secession." I had confidence in him then; he wrote sharply, and well then, just like he does now, on the other side. I believed in him and thought he would lead me right. I was ready to have gone with him (I had too much confidence in him) in 1856, when he advised us to secede if Fremont was elected, and in 1860, when Mr. Lincoln was elected and he, W. W. Holden, my old party leader, signed the ordinance of secession, said it was all right. I believe he said something about "our sacred rights," and bade me go and make good with my musket what he had done with his pen. I was fool enough to go—that was all. I was a simple creature; I did not understand his "technicalities." And now in 1867, his "technicality" would hang me and make him a good patriot! Shame upon you, Mr. Holden! This kind of treason would have made Judas blush red hot, and caused his "bowels to gush out." No, Mr. Holden, you know that there are ten thousand living witnesses in North Carolina, besides the thousands of dead, who can testify to the fact, that year after year, you taught the doctrine of Secession and State Rights; and now, when you turn round and want to degrade this people for what you taught them, think you that they will have any confidence in you?

You speak of a "pretended" Legislature. That comes with bad grace from you, Mr. Holden.—If it be true that this is a "pretended" State Legislature, what were you but a "pretended" Governor? Were you a usurper, Mr. Holden? Only "technically" so! You have now turned against Mr. Johnson with the venom of the viper, but if you were only a "pretended" Governor, then were you a usurper. This is the logical conclusion to be deduced from your position. I was willing to say that you were a real, sure enough Governor; but if you say I am a "pretended" legislator, you force me to say that you were a "pretended" Governor, and I despise pretense and the pretender. But I may thank my "stars, &c." Ah! Mr. Holden, when you and the "colored persons" get to voting, you may think you will be sure-enough Governor; but darkie is shrewder than you think for. You can't fool him with your "technicalities" as you did me; for his Northern friends (you know somebody else will want to be Governor, for instance, Mr. Jim Harris) will tell who you have been, from which they will guess who you are now.

I have done with you, Mr. Holden. When you give evidence that you have become a better man—a man of truth—one worthy of notice, I may notice you again; but not until then.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, Feb. 20, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW BUILDINGS.—We are glad to see the spirit of building in the City advancing. Five new and very comely brick stores have recently been erected on the burnt lots on Market Square—Messrs. Cheatham, Upchurch & Dodd, L. H. Adams, Lynn Adams, and the Messrs. Stronach, have put up excellent stores, two and three stories. It is understood that W. H. Holleman Esq., will soon commence to build on the corner lot purchased from Mr. Rowland.

WE ARE requested to state that the Hop at the Yarborough House will take place to-morrow (Thursday) evening—the ladies being desirous of attending Gen. Colston's lecture on Friday night.

THE SPIRIT STILL RISING.—We learn that it is the purpose of J. G. Williams, Esq., and Mr. Phil. Theim, who were the purchasers of the two lots, between the Fentress' building and Tuckers' Hall, on Fayetteville street, to proceed at once, to the erection of fine iron front stores. The plans are being drawn up, and the parties will commence operation before many weeks. We verily believe, if our Radical friends would moderate their plans, and give us half a chance, Raleigh would become a city worth speaking of, after awhile.

J. F. E. Mittag, of Lancastersville, S. C. appeals to the people of Newbern for 500 or 1,000 barrels of corn. He represents the destitution as very great and the condition of the people as one of starvation. The Mayor of Newbern urges a response of the people of that section and we hope it will be done. We hear of great want in Union, Stanly and other counties in this State, though perhaps the destitution will be felt more three months hence than now.

Gen. Lee and Game Fowls.

At the request of parties we publish the following correspondence between J. G. Arrington, Esq., of Nash County, and Gen. R. E. Lee, on the presentation of a pair of "game fowls."—The old General accepts very gracefully the gift. The real game is perhaps the best layer out, and they are remarkable for their freedom from the ordinary diseases of fowls. On these accounts the General will prize them:

HILLIARDSTON, NASH Co., N. C. Jan. 18, 1867.

GEN. R. E. LEE, My Dear Sir: Having waded through the late revolution, and much of that time connected with the army of Northern Virginia, I was an eye witness to the many kindnesses with which you treated your command, and alike to the courage and skill of their commander, your commands in war were always heeded by us, your example in peace shall be noticed by us and taught our offspring. Those of the army of Northern Virginia now present, desire to be remembered by you, and all of us will cherish, with grateful recollections, the name of their beloved commander. May the name of Lee ever be heralded and emblazoned on the pages of future history, as the great refulgent and transcendental star of virtue, intelligence and patriotism. And now, General, will you permit me to present you, as an emblem of true chivalry, a pair of my celebrated game fowls. They are of the breed my father, the late Nicholas W. Arrington, and well known game breeder, termed "Stonetence" and with which he fought with such unvarying success, throughout the Southern States, winning the admiration of hundreds of fanciers by their impetuous courage, beauty of feather, symmetrical figure and activity. The cock is black, with white legs, weighing six pounds; the hen is very dark brown. Please do not censure me, General, for trying to corrupt your good morals. I wish you to raise them and eat of their flesh, and give unto your children, that the same pure integrity and principles, with that heroic spirit of the old block, may be perpetuated from generation to generation. For your future health, prosperity and happiness, and may your Christian example ever be a nucleus around which future Southern generations may revolve, is the wish and prayer of all of our people.

With high regard, I am
Your friend and ob't. serv't.,
J. G. ARRINGTON.

LEXINGTON, VA., Jan. 25, 1867.

My Dear Sir:—I am much obliged to you for the sentiments of esteem expressed in your letter of the 18th inst., and am very grateful to the former members of the Army of Northern Virginia, for their kind remembrance. I need not assure you that the memory of all who belonged to that army is cherished by me, and that their welfare and prosperity will always be to me a source of much happiness.

I should be glad to receive a pair of your fowls which you offer to send me, and would value them as a mark of your friendship; but do not think they could be transported with safety during this inclement weather.

With sincere wishes for your happiness,
I am, very respectfully,
R. E. LEE.

MR. J. G. ARRINGTON.

STEAMSHIP SAPPHO.—The Steamship Sappho, Capt. Lingo, of Murray's Line, is at the wharf of Whittord, Dill & Co. Agents at Newbern, and a noble looking vessel she is. We were on board of her yesterday, and were delighted to see so fine a steamship on the line between the port of New York and this city. She will take a cargo of one thousand bales of cotton, and draw less than eight feet of water. She will be laden in a few days, and sail for the city of New York. Should circumstances permit, we shall test her qualities as a seagoing craft, having determined to make use of her as a medium of reaching New York, should the weather continue, as now, pleasant.—Newbern J. of C.

FOR VENEZUELA.—The schooner United States is advertised in the Richmond papers to sail from this port (Wilmington) for Coroni, Venezuela, on the 6th. of March. Dr Price, President of the Venezuela Company goes out on her, and one of the Directors, with his family, is also to go.—Wil. Dispatch.

SHIPPING.—While standing on the wharf yesterday afternoon, we sought to ascertain the quantity of shipping in port. This we found to be no difficult matter, as the whole summing up showed not more than ten or twelve vessels of every description in the harbor.—Wil. Journal.

THE SHAD MARKET was better supplied on yesterday afternoon than has been known to be the case at this stage of the season in several years.—Wil. Journal.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.

In the Senate the bill providing for the safety of passengers on Steam propelled vessels passed.

The action of the House on Sherman's bill was reported.

Mr. Williams moved that the Senate insist on its amendment.

Mr. Conness objected, and thought it too important to entrust to a committee of conference. The difference between the two Houses was a fundamental one, and a conference committee could give no further light. The result in the House arose from bad faith on the part of friends of the measure. He was in favor of laying it on the table, and taking up the Louisiana bill and applying it to all the States.

Messrs. Sumner and Pomeroy advocated a conference committee.

Mr. Howard said, that there should be no compromising or trafficking in such an important matter.

Mr. Sherman held that the House could not be reconciled, without abandoning the principle of the bill. The opposition came from extreme sides, one holding that the Southern States were now entitled to representation, and the other that it was too liberal.

Mr. Hendricks did not think that the President would shrink from acting if the bill reached him.

Mr. Pomeroy repeated the belief, that it would not become a law this session, either by conference or otherwise.

Mr. Lane opposed a committee of conference. The difference was elemental and fundamental, and he was unwilling to abandon the Senate's position.

Mr. Wade thought the matter too grave to entrust to a committee at this stage of the session. He preferred beginning the latter again. Alluding to Mr. Fessenden, Mr. Wade said Fessenden's course in being silent here and then going to the House to try to defeat the bill, might be honorable, but he did not like it.

The discussion proceeded at great length, mostly of a personal character, showing an utter want of harmony. The Senate finally insisted on its amendment and refused a committee without division.

In the House Mr. Banks introduced a resolution allowing national vessels to carry contributions of clothing and provisions to the destitute of the South. Mr. Spalding objected.

Mr. Sherman's bill came up. A motion to lay the whole matter on the table was lost.

Mr. Stokes attempted to read a telegram which he received from Tennessee, but was cried down.

The vote on motion to concur was 73 to 98.

A committee of conference was agreed to without division. Messrs. Stevens, Shellebarger and Blaine were appointed on part of the House.

The report of the conference committee on the tenure of office bill was adopted. It includes cabinet officers among those whom the President cannot remove.

The Indian appropriation bill was passed.

The death of Samuel Downing, the last revolutionary soldier was announced.

The militia bill, giving the standing army two regiments in each district, came up. The Democrats filibustered through the hour assigned it and goes over.

The House went into committee of the whole on the military appropriation bill. It gives the Freedman's Bureau, for various items, $3,836,300. The second section makes the General of the army's headquarters at Washington. He shall not be removed, suspended, relieved or ordered elsewhere without the approval of the Senate. Any person issuing orders contrary to this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable with imprisonment not less than two nor more than thirty years.

The Civil Rights Bill---Sherman Opposed to Placing the Negro Over the White Man---Surratt.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.

The President answers the Senatorial questions regarding the violations of the Civil Rights Bill: that the Secretary of the Navy is aware of none: the Secretary of the Interior has received no information of any: the Secretary of State does not know of any: the Postmaster General has none; and the Attorney General has reported none to the President. But he has William Finsher of Georgia under consideration, which was referred to the Attorney General's office by the Secretary of War. The Secretary of War says that the necessary military orders have been issued and no neglect or refusal to enforce the laws have been reported to the President. Three cases have been reported to the President viz: Dr. Watson of Virginia, Wm. Finsher of Georgia, and Perkins of Texas.

In response to the Senate's enquiry, Mr. Stanton reports three cases involving a lame execution of the Civil Rights Bill, including Dr. Watson of Virginia for killing a negro. None others had come to the knoweledge of the War Department or the President.

Mr. Cowan made a defence of the President and the South based upon Stevens report, asking, why Senators did not go to Secretary Stanton for redress of the alleged outrages, instead of pouring them into the public ear. Respect for the country's fair fame should induce them to seek redress through Mr. Stanton before proclaiming them, as a means of maligning the President.

Mr. Sherman in urging his bill said: we give the negro the ballot, schools and the protection of the laws. But the nation never will consent to put white men under his domination.' He designated Stevens and Elliot's plans as horribly defective.

On the landing of Surratt, the Marshall said: Is your name John H. Surratt. He replied: It is, sir. The Marshall served the warrant and took possession of the prisoner. The care and custody are entirely under the civil authorities.

WE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEBRATed Oil, and in doing so we unhesitatingly pronounce it SUPERIOR TO ANY BURNING OIL IN USE. It is Non-Explosive. Free from Grease. It will not grease the hands. It will not soil or grease the clothing. It is more brilliant than Gas. It produces a soft and beautiful light. It is not so trying to the eyes. It can be used in any Kerosene Lamp by adopting our LIGHT HOUSE OR RACTCHET BURNERS.

It has been most favorably received, and pronounced by judges to be the

THE BEST AND MOST RELIABLE OIL

now in the market; and in consequence of the many serious accidents arising from the EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE, this Oil is extensively known and used in preference.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with this valuable Oil, and we solicit from the public an examination and trial.

We have on hand a large stock of LAMPS, BURNERS, CHIMNEYS, WICKS, &c., and can supply the trade on liberal terms.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!
BAUGH'S
RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,
SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE Delaware River Chemical Works,
PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an elevated reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 Parts Consist of
Moisture	5.80
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

HILLSBORO' MILITARY ACADEMY.

THIS well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time.—It is under the direction of

GEN. R. E. COLSTON,

a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia
MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on

FOR SALE.

ONE THOUSAND ACRES of valuable land, lying on Neuse River, in the County of Johnson, and on both sides of the N. C. R. Road, between Smithfield and Stallings' Depots.

I prefer selling the whole tract to one man, but will cut it into hundred acre tracts to suit purchasers.—To a company of men wishing small farms and pleasant healthy locations, it holds out good inducements, as I will sell on favourable terms. Persons wishing to examine the land, and coming by Rail Road, can be put off the Cars at Vinson's Mill, where they will always find me.

I will also sell a TWENTY HORSE power SAW MILL in good working order, with teams, waggons, and all appurtenances. N. M. VINSON.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These The World always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of The World for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. The World will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends, making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. The World adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
